

Technical and economic aspects of large scale seaweed cultivation in Europe

Final AT~SEA event – June 9, 2015

Agenda:

- 9.00 – 10.00 Highlights of the AT~SEA project
- textile developments
 - cultivation aspects
 - results of large scale demonstrations in IRE, NOR and SCO
- 10.00 – 10.30 Coffee break
- 10.30 – 10.45: Première of the AT~SEA movie
- 10.45 – 11.00: Presentation by Flemish minister Philippe Muyters (Minister for Work, Economy, Sports and Innovation)
- 11.00 – 11.15: Presentation by Clara de la Torre, Director of Research and Innovation Directorate, DG Research & Innovation
- 11.15 – 11.30: Presentation by Piet Bogaert (Cargill) on the importance of seaweed cultivation for the food industry
- 11.30 – 11.45: Presentation by Piers Hart (World Wildlife Foundation) on sustainable, integrated aquaculture
- 11.45 – 12.00: Press conference with speakers of morning session
- 12.00 – 13.30: Lunch with seaweed products
- 13.30 – 14.00 Presentation on seaweed cultivation all over the world by Pierre James (CEVA)
- 14.00 – 14.30 Presentation on seaweeds for food applications by Helena Abreu (AlgaPlus)
- 14.30 – 15.00 Presentation on seaweed as feed ingredients by Stefan Kraan (OceanHarvest)
- 15.00 – 15.30 Coffee break
- 15.30 – 16.00 Presentation on “the Danish case” by Per Dolmer (Orbicon)
- 16.00 – 16.30 Beyond AT~SEA
- 16.30 – 18.00 Reception

